#1131 - High Fives...composite performances of the most famous of all organ symphonies (by Charles-Marie Widor), and its somber companion-challenger (by Louis Vierne).

#1132 - A Newman for All Seasons...performances by and conversation with the vibrant and provocative American virtuoso, composer and musicologist Anthony Newman.

#1133 - Organ Plus...whether combined with saxophone, brass ensemble, chamber orchestra or symphonic ensemble, the King of Instruments proves itself an able and amiable companion,

#1134 - In Concert...from 'lively' contexts in Saint Paul, Minneapolis, and Amarillo, recitalists Hector Olivera, Stephen Tharp, Craig Phillips and others perform.

#1135 - Sönig Böhm...a survey of music by the north German master Georg Böhm (1661-1733) of Lüneburg, whose exemplary shock-waves inspired the young Johann Sebastian Bach.

Pipedreams® is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the "king of instruments" is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
