1240 – Some Last Curley Cues... a tribute to a great American virtuoso, the outspoken and charismatic entertainer Carlo Curley (1952–2012), for whom the pipe organ was a way of life and whose gift to us will keep on giving.

1241 – Rachel's Children... performances and compositions by one of Canada's foremost musical talents, Rachel Laurin.

1242 – Appreciating Some American Classics... organist and archivist Lorenz Maycher reflects on the heritage of Aeolian-Skinner pipe organs.

1243 – Minnesota Music... concert performances on instruments by Daniel Jaeckel, Reuter, and the Schantz Organ Company in Duluth, Richfield, and New Ulm.

1244 – The Man from Alsace... a 70th-birthday tribute to Daniel Roth, organist of the Parisian church of Saint Sulpice.

Pipedreams® is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
