1331 – New Sounds from Saint Mark’s ...in solos and choral accompaniments, resident and guest artists showcase the 2012 Foley-Baker rebuild of the Welte-Möller organ at the Episcopal Cathedral in Minneapolis.

1332 – Purvis Pieces...a centenary tribute to the celebrated San Francisco organist-composer Richard Purvis (1913-1994).

1333 – Women Work...in anticipation of Women’s Equality Day, a program to showcase women composers and organists.

1334 – Regent’s Report...a selective survey of some recent releases from a notable English label, with music from Durham, Ely, Oxford, York and Bristol.

Pipedreams® is American Public Media’s weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone’s celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
