1305 – In the Big Apple......great instruments and great music can be found in abundance in America's greatest city!

1306 – Some American Classics......from three centuries of compositions, an overview of the 'old-world' organ art as practiced in the 'new world'.

1307 – Passacaglia......what started out as a suspect Spanish 'walking dance' evolved into one of classical music's most profound genres.

1308 – Thomas Trotter!...performances by and conversation with England's premiere Town Hall Organist, king of the Hill (organ) in Birmingham.

Pipedreams® is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
