1340 – The Only Crayfish in my Brook... a tri-centenary salute to Bach's favorite and most prolific student, Johann Ludwig Krebs (1713–1780).

1341 – From the Opera Box... transcriptions and arrangements of select solos and scenes from the lyric stage seem perfectly at home in the organ loft, too!

1342 – On Middle Ground... from Minnesota down to Louisiana, the King of Instruments has many exemplary representatives in the central segment of our United States.

1343 – Outside the Box... prize-winning young organists explore intriguing repertoire beyond the same-old-same-old.

Pipedreams® is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
