1518 - Strange Friends . . . along with the usual sorts of musical hookups, the pipe organ gets along pretty well with guitar, panflute, bassoon and taragot.

1519 - Thomas Trotter at the Kimmel Center . . . a concert performance by one of England's foremost recitalists, featuring the Fred J. Cooper Memorial Organ in Philadelphia's Verizon Hall.

1520 - Tongues of Fire . . . intriguing, invigorating, and inflammable compositions on themes for the Feast of Pentecost.

1521 - Classic Concertos . . . since the 18th century era, the combination of organ with other instrumental ensembles has provided many good vibes.

Pipedreams® is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
