- 1913 - The New and the Old . . . these recent releases embrace intriguing repertoire covering six centuries.
- 1914 - Famous Last Words . . . in anticipation of Holy Week, selections from various compositions that enshrine Jesus's final earthy utterances.
- 1915 - For the Morning of Easter . . . the resurrection theme has inspired composers across many generations.
- 1916 - Two Will Do . . . proving quality over quantity and the remarkable capability of organs with 'only' two manuals.
- 1917 - Past Masters . . . recalling famous and forgotten names from the past who still engage us with their unique talents.

Pipedreams is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
