2009 - Women Work . . . and have proven themselves exceptional performers and composers, whom we celebrate on International Women's Day during Women's History Month.

2010 - Invitation to the Dance . . . though the pipe organ itself may seem big and ponderous, its music will have your toes tapping.

2011 - Bach Here and There . . . diverse venues and interpretive attitudes explore the universal genius of J.S.B.

2012 - More Minnesota Memories . . . drawn from the archives, arresting repertoire and performances featuring Minnesota venues and instruments.

2013 - Sonata for Everyone! . . . from Baroque beginnings to contemporary realizations, this 'classical' format serves all.

Pipedreams is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
