2022 - The Sounds of Summer Suspended? . . . we highlight a few of the famous pipe organs for which the summer season usually is particularly active.

2023 - Five (Not So) Easy Pieces . . . a reflection on the effusive art of Max Reger, whose pages may be black with notes but also colorful with emotion.

2024 - Potpourri . . . a selective review of intriguing and recent compact disc releases.

2025 - More Modern Music Makers . . . a deliciously diverse display of newer pipe organs at home and abroad.

2026 - The American Muse . . . let's delight in American composers during our American holiday week.

Pipedreams is American Public Media's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the king of instruments is heard on stations nationwide and worldwide via pipedreams.org. Go online to locate a broadcast station near you.
